JUDGE THROWS OUT VON ANHALT AND ZSA ZSA GABOR LAWSUIT AGAINST DAUGHTER CONSTANCE FRANCESCA HILTON

SANTA MONICA, CA (RUSHPRNEWS)- (9/18/07 Ronald Richards, Esq. and E. Christine Hehir, Esq.) appeared in Department I of the Los Angeles Superior Court, West District, on behalf of Constance Francesca Hilton to commence the trial in a multiple count civil action initiated by Zsa Zsa Gabor and Frederic Von Anhalt against Zsa Zsa Gabor's sole daughter defendant Constance Francesca Hilton.

The original lawsuit was filed over two years ago June 1, 2005. The meritless suit accused Hilton of Fraud, Elder Abuse and other false charges for allegedly forging her mother's name to a real estate finance document to obtain a multi-million dollar equity loan.

Los Angeles Superior Court Case No.: SC085767.

Ms. Gabor's ex parte application to continue the trial was denied because it was full of hearsay, not credible, and inconsistent with the representations made in the papers. The Court found that it was misled on numerous representations.

Numerous causes of action are now past the statute of limitations and there is a serious risk of malicious prosecution against Zsa Zsa Gabor's past and present attorneys, Zsa Zsa Gabor, and Frederic Von Anhalt if they ever attempt to bring any further lawsuits against Ms. Hilton.

This was a very emotional and highly charged lawsuit with a tremendous amount of sadness for all whenever a mother sues a daughter on false charges.

"The alleged surgery performed on Zsa Zsa Gabor's legs conveniently booked for the same day she was supposed to appear in court did not go well with the judge", said Edward Lozzi, spokesperson for Hilton.

The in court dismissal speaks volumes for plaintiff's lack of confidence in their position.

"I want to get on with my life. These past two years have been stolen from me because of these malicious and untrue charges. I feel that these false accusations have been proven to be just that and really had nothing to do with my mother." ,said Constance Francesca Hilton.

SANTA MONICA, Calif.—Zsa Zsa Gabor's lawsuit against her daughter over family money has been dismissed.

An attorney representing Gabor and her ninth husband, Frederic Von Anhalt, voluntarily moved to dismiss the case, according to lawyers for both sides.

Gabor and her husband sued Francesca Hilton in 2005, claiming she forged Gabor's signature to take out a loan on Gabor's $14 million Bel Air home. They claim Hilton then stole $2 million from that transaction to buy herself a home and invest in a phantom company in New York.

The suit alleged elder abuse, fraud and intentional infliction of emotional distress.

Gabor's husband has said that Hilton took the money because she's worried she won't get enough when her mother dies. Hilton has said he actually manipulated Gabor to get into her will, and she refinanced the home with her mother's permission to protect the money.

The trial was set to begin Wednesday, but Gabor, who was recovering from surgery performed the previous day to treat infections in her legs, did not appear in court.

One of her attorneys asked to postpone the case because of the 90-year-old actress' medical conditions, but Superior Court Judge Jacqueline Connor rejected the request, Hilton's attorney Ronald Richards said.

Gabor and Von Anhalt plan to file a revised lawsuit, their lawyer Chris Fields said.
